

Kalat

A group of approximately ten people, including men and women of various ages, are posed on a rocky, grassy hillside. Some are sitting on the rocks, while others are standing. They are dressed in casual outdoor attire like t-shirts, tank tops, and hats. The entire scene is overlaid with a semi-transparent orange filter. A white rectangular border frames the central image, and a smaller white rectangular box is centered over the text.

CURRICULUM

Since 1994 Kalat has promoted research and development of Sicilian territory thanks to:

20 International Archeology Summer Camps in the municipalities of Trapani, Erice, Paceco, Valderice, Alcamo, Naro, Campobello di Licata;

the participation of over 1000 young people from the world; the discovery of over 274 archaeological sites; the mapping of Campobello di Licata's area; GIS of the archaeological chart of the territory with the Department of Archaeology - University of Palermo - and the supervision from the BB.CC.AA. Superintendence of Agrigento;

3 publications of a monographic journal "Kokalos" - Dip. Of Archeology, University of Palermo - about research and discoveries carried out in Montagnola della Burrania (TP).

the recovery and enhancement of the ancient park of "Iachinu Fili" until 2012, a prehistoric necropolis with tombs reused in the Byzantine age, of which an executive development project has been set up in the Triennial Plan of the OO.PP. of the Municipality.

Since 2000, 90 young European volunteers have been welcomed for periods of 2 weeks to 12 months, 50 young people have been sent from the provinces of Agrigento, Trapani and Ragusa, we have been started partnerships with more than 20 foreign countries.

Since 2001 to 2006 Kalat has been managing the Local Point Eurodesk of Agrigento, network to inform about European Youth Programs.

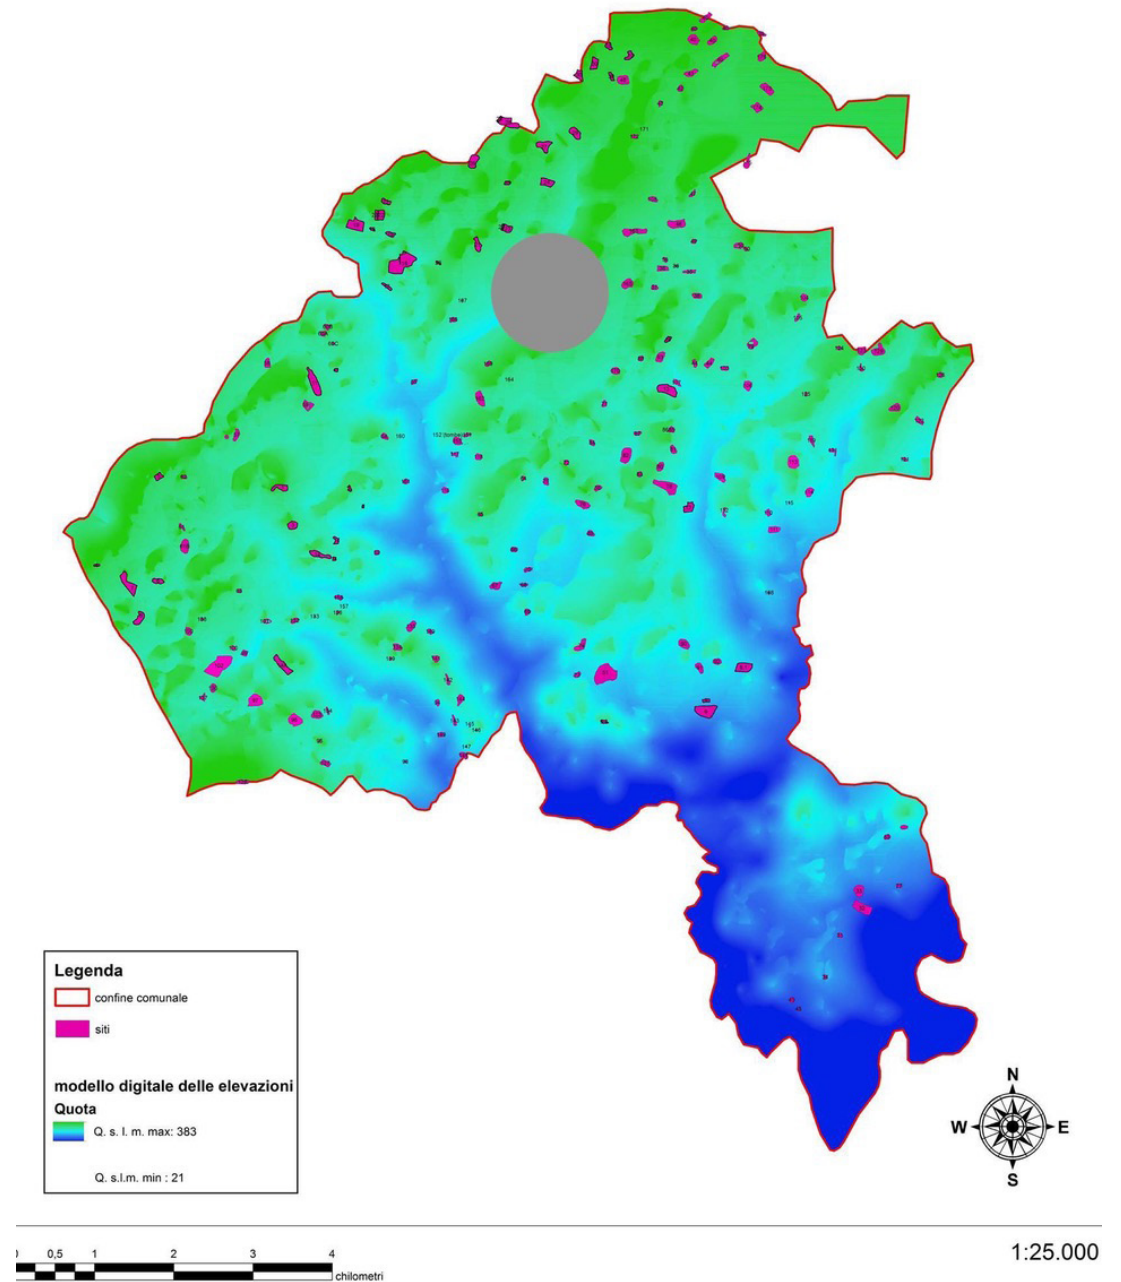

From 2008 Kalat project has developed interesting didactic activities and laboratories - called "ArcheoloDida" - on local heritage and a permanent exhibition with the results of the archeological researches in the territory.

From 2011 to 2014 Kalat was the leader of the QLT Project, co-funded by "Fondazione con il Sud", with the partnership of Agrica and Arcidiocesi Consortium - Caritas Agrigento, CNA, Confartigianato, Confcooperative, Agrigento Confindustria and the municipalities of Campobello di Licata and Ravanusa, to increase entrepreneurial skills of young people and improve the attractiveness of the territory.
